What's New at Lake Anna?

A Lot to Be Thankful For

Thankful for our families, our friends, our beautiful landscape, and much more. The original Thanksgiving was meant to be a harvest festival and has many meanings for many different people. Through the years, our society has changed from a feast of what we hunted, planted and harvested to today's family, which has expanded.

To understand the change, one must understand that in the "old days" people lived farther apart from each other but also closer to their family, especially in rural areas. Through the years, decades, and centuries, opportunities and dreams have caused once farm family residents and children to begin finding careers and work as the small farmers.

Remember, at first, it was settlers having a harvest festival - a peace offering to the community and neighbors. Slowly it changed to settlers and farmers, mainly giving thanks for the harvest and safety. But it has now grown to families getting back together after leaving home and creating their own lives.

To people in cities performing a holiday ritual

Joe Joe's Superheroes Wows Everyone

Joe Joe's Superheroes is impressing local consumers with new dishes like the "Loaded Surf-nTurf Baked Tater" - a super huge oven baked potato stuffed with two types of cheese, grilled steak, onions and topped with bacon and grilled shrimp.

Joe Joe's is owned and operated by Joe White, who moved here when he was a boy with his parents. He attended grade school and high school in Louisa County. He, his wife and their children have become an integral part of the community. Even though Joe is a true local, he also had influences from a few other places in his culinary experience.

Cars Characters at 208 Tire and Auto Repair

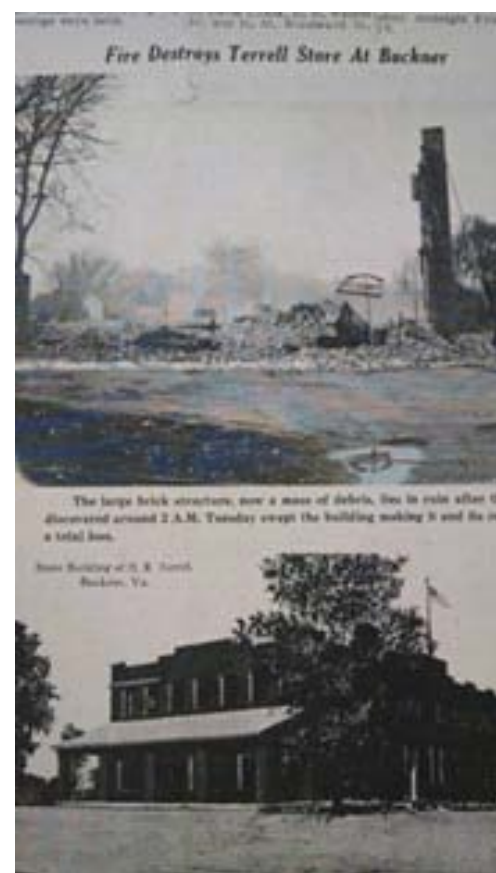

As the breeze blew through Radiator Springs, Tow-Mater looked to the mountain tops and dry climate with a feeling of adventure. He was longing for a new setting and new friends. As he looked at the vacancies across the U.S. something about Fredericksburg, Virginia felt inviting. It was green, on I95 and had seasons! He settled into his new home at 208 Tire and Auto Repair, on Courthouse Road, with the Turess family! He met many smiling faces and cars that filled his days.

One day he saw a familiar blue shape. As it drew closer, he could hardly believe his eyes! His good friend Guido, from Luigi's Casa Della Tires was rounding the corner with a huge greeting from Home!! The two laughed and reminisced about Radiator Springs. Mater shared his stories of Fredericksburg, dressing in seasonal costumes, riding in the local parades and his special appearances at Car Shows. He even shared the beautiful trophies he had won and the gifts he's received from the giving customer at 208 Tire and Auto!

Back in 1966, What Was Happening in the Future Lake Region?

The Louisa County Historical Society was founded in 1966 by a handful of dedicated residents each with a commitment to bringing alive the rich history of the area and telling the many remarkable stories of those who have called the current Lake Region home. As part of its 50th anniversary celebration, the Historical Society poured through all of the editions of the Central Virginian published in 1966, and drafted for the

LETTERS to the Editor

Dear Breeze,

Are we ever going to get real jobs here at Lake Anna? I am a 21-year-old senior in college and if I don't see any change I won't be able to live in my hometown of Louisa. Why do our supervisors run off hotels and opportunity?

Good question!

We have a reporter looking into this question and hope to expand on their findings soon.

Sincerely,
The Breeze

that suits their issues: thankful for work, life, someone returning from war, etc.

New families are separated by oceans, states, countries - we all share thanks in many ways. Families are not only relatives, but friends that share more than proximity and lives that intertwine and help relieve the loneliness of lost or distant loved ones.

Around the tables of people in our country, you will see white, black, hispanic, and mixtures of all of the above. Tall, short, slim, thick, young, and old, all giving thanks to our country, our servicemen and women around the world and our community alike. We look at the world and we have to realize that here at Lake Anna, we have so much to be thankful for, whether we have hunted and gathered, planted and harvested, or simply enjoyed the freedom of shopping in an American grocery store. We have been afforded a lot of opportunity in this country, by way of our forefathers and our service men and women. I am thankful for them.

Mark and Pam Tures, owners of Lee Hill Auto Service and 208 Tire and Auto Repair, could see how much fun the guys were having as they made guests and passersby happy. When they had an idea!! At a local Piston Cup race, Mark approached Mater's BFF, Lightning McQueen. He explained how Mater loved having Guido by his side but he was still missing home. Lightning agreed to pay Mater a surprise visit. In Sept of this year, with great fanfare and live video on Facebook, Lightning joined the boys on the lawn. He has been an amazing addition to 208 Tire and Auto Repair. The business is open Monday-Friday and decorated with a Route 66 theme.

The family friendly waiting area, is of course, sporting our CARS friends theme. When you are looking for Auto Repair and Service. Mater and Lightning can attest that our ASE Certified technicians can fix it right the first time. How Else would Lightning be able to finish the Piston Cups with a win? Guido is also thrilled with the great deal we have on tires. He is quiet speedy when it comes to that Pit Stop on our guest cars.

Next time you are out in the 4 Mile Fork area of Courthouse Road, stop by for a photo op, tire quote, or just to meet our great staff. The community is smiling because of our CARS family and we want you to smile because your auto needs exceed expectation at 208 Tire and Auto Repair.

The newest of the Super Spuds at Joe Joe's the "Burn Your Face Off" super potato loaded with ghost pepper cheese, grilled onions, grilled green peppers, jalapeños, bacon, and grilled steak. Topped with more cheese, reaper sauce and garlic butter.

His pizza, for instance, comes from his experience in Cleveland, Ohio. Even though he left there when he was very young, his family's visits to Ohio have brought back authentic Cleveland-style pie. But this writer/reporter has been even more impressed with the specials that aren't even listed on the menu. Joe Joe's creativity shows in his food. If you're looking for personality, the food has almost as much as Joe Joe himself. Every time I'm in, he comes from behind the kitchen and talks about some of the food he has and what's been going on and always asks me how I've been, and about people we know. He is the epitome of rural town living at its best. You will also feel like a local part of the community while in his company. Great food, great people, and great conversation!

Back in 1966, What Was Happening in the Future Lake Region?

CV twelve articles reporting each month on local news that year. 1966 was five years before there was an actual Lake Anna. Below is a summary of those articles and we hope you'll enjoy learning about or better yet recalling what Central Virginia was like before the Lake.

January 1966

Town of Louisa Postmaster, John Bullock, announced on January 1 that due to the previous year's increase in money orders (over $250,000) and postage sales, the Louisa Post Office had been elevated to first class status by the United States Post Office. Sheriff Henry Kennon of Louisa County was given a pay raise for 1966 to $5,165 per year.

On January 28, 1966, Charles Apperson of the Charlottesville Office of the Social Security Administration held a special enrollment day in Louisa for those Social Security recipients who had not yet signed up for the new Federal Medicare program for citizens age 65 or older. Despite a 14 inch snowfall that day, fifty Louisans braved the elements to enroll.

February 1966

In the first week of February 1966, with twenty-four inches of snow still on the ground, Louisa residents were pelted over 2 days by two inches of rain. The combination of massive amounts of melting snow and the additional torrents of rain pushed the South Anna and North Anna Rivers over their banks and clogged all of their major tributaries causing significant secondary flooding. Most local bridges were underwater, many roads were closed, and residents in low-lying areas temporarily evacuated from their homes.

Bettie Lou Humphries, a senior at Louisa County High School was chosen for consideration in the 1966 Betty Crocker Homemaker of Tomorrow Award. Miss Humphries scored the highest in written knowledge and in the contest's attitude examination. For weekend entertainment, Pitts Drive-In Theater in Madison was playing "Die Monster Die" and "Planet of the Vampires".

March 1966

The Louisa Board of Supervisors announced that it was establishing a special fox trapping season from March 15 to May 15. Created to prevent the spread of rabies in the county, a $3 bounty would be paid for every fox tail received. In March 1966, the Louisa County High School hosted a "Hootenanny" in the gym with performances by local acts including local high school teacher John Knapp and his wife. Admission was $1 per person or $1.50 per couple. The whole family was invited to participate in the annual Aunt Jemima Pancake Day sponsored by the Louisa Little League baseball teams. It was held on March 26 at the Louisa Methodist Sunday School Annex. All you could eat for just $.89.

In its March 31, 1966 edition, the CV printed in its entirety the Louisa County Public School Notice of School Desegregation Choice Plan under Title VI of the Civil Rights Act of 1964.

What was the price of groceries back then?

At the Safeway in Louisa, ground beef was $0.45 per pound, chicken legs and thighs for $0.53 per pound, a picnic ham for $0.39 a pound, beef rib roast at $0.69 a pound, peach ice cream $0.89 for a half-gallon, navel oranges $0.69 per dozen, and eight ears of corn for $0.69. At the local A&P, chuck roast went for $0.69 per pound, pork loin roast $0.37 a pound, perch filets for $0.63 per pound, swordfish steaks for $0.89 per pound, rutabagas $0.10 a pound, three dozen eggs for $0.89, and two loaves of white bread for $0.39.

April 1966

Terrell's Store a popular two-story shopping emporium for parts of Louisa, Hanover and Spotsylvania Counties was completely destroyed by fire. The pre-Lake Anna landmark that had served the community for nearly six decades was only partially covered by insurance.

On April 28, the Secretary of the Louisa Electoral Board, H.J.T. Webner reported in the CV that recent amendments to the U.S. Constitution had ruled out use of a poll tax. It was suggested that all citizens check with the Elections Registrar to confirm that their names were registered correctly and at the proper precinct. The annual Cancer Crusade in Louisa had a goal this month of $2700 in contributions. At Louisa County Elementary Schools, a typical school lunch consisted of fried bologna, string beans, French fries, mixed fruit, hot biscuit, and milk.

May 1966

An earthquake struck Louisa County at 2:19 am on Tuesday, May 31st. Many residents were awoken and reported that for up to two minutes their houses were shaking and dishes were rattling; others reported sleeping through the event. The epicenter of the quake was placed in nearby Hanover County and had a rating of 4.0 on the seismographic Richter scale. The August 2011 earthquake registered 5.8 on the Richter scale.

The Louisa County Ruritan Club announced that Miss Kathleen Winston was named Louisa Tobacco Princess and would represent Louisa in the State finals in Richmond. At the annual Memorial Day carnival sponsored by the Bumpass Community Volunteer Fire Department, the grand prize for the beauty contest was a rebuilt Jeep 4-wheel drive pick-up truck. Louisa County was seeking to hire a new dog warden.

June 1966

Ninety-eight seniors, graduated from Louisa County High School at ceremonies presided over by School Superintendent, Hubert M. Monger. In other news, the Louisa Town Council voted to enforce an 11:00 p.m. curfew for youths under age 18 who were not accompanied by a parent or guardian.

Bailey's Drug Store in downtown advised readers how to kill foot odor; "Apply T-4-L, a powerful germ killer. If you're not completely pleased, your $.48 will be refunded at the drug counter". This month, Donkey Ball came to Louisa. Sponsored by the Louisa Jaycees, the Buckeye Donkey Ball Company of Columbus Ohio provided the donkeys and the umpires for a baseball game played on donkeys. The Little River Baptist Church of Buckner observed its 175th anniversary on Sunday June 10, the beginning with a church service and then a series of revival services held the following week.

What would a Set of Wheels cost?

At Pettit Brothers Chrysler-Plymouth on Main Street, a brand new 1967 Barracuda was available for $2449. At Louisa Motors, they were selling a 1966 Falcon Club Coupe for $1891, a 1964 American Motors Rambler for $1395, and a 1965 Mustang convertible for $1999. At Gardner's Junk Yard, you'd find for sale as is a 1957 Plymouth for $275 and a 1956 2 ton truck for $550. In Mineral at Trainham Auto Sales, a 1960 2 door Chevy sedan was selling for $495, a 1958 2 door Ford V8 sedan for $295, and a 1952 Dodge pick-up for $195.

At the Louisa Feed Store, you could order a brand new set of automobile tires starting at just $13.60 per tire.

July 1966

Sylvia Tate of Mineral collected $900 in groceries at the local Safeway as a result of being named a winner in the Pepsi Cola "Shopping Spree" contest. She was given five minutes to bring as many articles as she was able to the check-out counter.

The Louisa County Board of Supervisors voted to purchase eight air conditioners to provide "working comfort for county officials". The Board also awarded a contract to the Willow Oak Restaurant to feed prisoners at the Louisa County jail at 90 cents per plate. Louisa County Sheriff, Henry A. Kennon, warned county residents to be on the lookout for "con" men in Louisa County posing as exterminators or electrical inspectors. He asked that suspicious characters be referred immediately to the Sheriff's Department.

August 1966

This month, Miss Sadie Beeker, Clerk of Louisa County Selective Service Board announced that 20 young men from the County had been drafted into the military. You'll recall that approximately 50 young men had just graduated from Louisa County High School in June. Miss Beeker said that this was one of the highest number of draft-eligible men called up in many years. The U.S. Postal Service was accepting applications for Postmaster of the Bumpass Post Office with a starting salary of $5941. Completed applications were due no later than August 24. State transportation crews had finally completed work on a new two-lane, 118 foot Foxes Bridge over the South Anna River at Route 604. The annual Belmont Horse Show was held August 20th on the farm of Thomas Lee Goodwin.

September 1966

Opening September 5, the combined County Agricultural and the Mineral Fireman's Fair was held for the sixth straight year on the Mineral fairgrounds and drew large crowds. At the bovine competition, "Phyllis of Springberry Farm" won for her owners, the Botkins, a $10 prize as Grand Champion in the dairy category. The Louisa County High School varsity football season began their 1966 season. The Rebels (now the Lions) lost to the Spotsylvania High School Knights 19-14. Over at the Department of Motor Vehicles, the State was looking to hire new clerks, typists, and stenographers. Beginning salaries started from $240 to $300 per month.

It was back to school in Louisa County, and the local Louisa Lions Club issued a writing challenge to Louisa County students. Any student ages 14 to 22 was invited to prepare and submit to the local Lions Club an essay of no more than 5,000 words describing their plan for creating world peace.

What else could you buy in 1966?

At the Louisa Feed Store, a new 15 cubic foot refrigerator cost $339, or $299 with a trade in of your old appliance. At Southern States, a 30 cubic foot upright freezer sold for $365. Beeler's Appliances offered a new 19" Zenith television for $128.88 with an acceptable trade-in. At the Jefferson Shop men's dress shirts sold for $1.50 and women's blouses $1.59. At, the Louisa Department Store gloves were available for $1.00 a pair, capri pant sets were $3.00 to $4.50, neckties for $1, men's suits from $29.95, and kids pajamas for $3.98. The Silco store sold pocket size transistor radios for only $2.88. At Alhizer's Appliances and Furniture in Mineral, a used television sold for only $25 and a seven piece breakfast set for $20.

October 1966

Kathleen Winston, the reigning Miss Louisa County, was invited to participate in the 18th Annual Tobacco Festival in Richmond as a Tobacco Princess. Ms. Winston was a sophomore at Virginia Intermont College in Bristol, Virginia. At the State Agriculture Fair in Richmond, David and Daniel Garriques won the Future Farmers of America Corn Sweepstakes and took away prize money of ten dollars.

The Louisa County Board of Supervisors approved pay raises for themselves and most county employees in some cases doubling existing salaries. The U.S. Department of Health, Education, and Welfare cleared Louisa County for federal aid after the County's school desegregation plans had been approved. FBI Director, J. Edgar Hoover reported in the CV that "officials of the United States Communist Party had called for mass agitation and that the youth of America are being singled out for increased attention".

November 1966

The National Health Service in Washington announced that over the previous summer Louisa County had recorded the second highest incidence of tuberculosis in Virginia with 88 active cases. Residents were warned that a three hundred pound male black bear had been spotted in Yanceyville. Livestock in the area had been killed and a dog bitten.

In Louisa, the Ladies Auxiliary of the Louisa Community Fire Company held their annual fund-raising November bake and rummage sale on Friday, November 4th at Maddox Feed Store. The Elpis Christian Church of Holly Grove and the Holly Grove Christian Church marked the upcoming Thanksgiving holiday with a joint church service followed by a combined fellowship supper. In the spirit of the Thanksgiving holiday, Sacra's Restaurant in Mineral planned to stay open Thanksgiving Day offering traditional Thanksgiving family dinners. "Treat Mom and Bring the Entire Family".

December 1966

The annual meeting of World War I Veterans, Barracks 3307 was scheduled to meet in Louisa on Saturday December 17. That same month, the local Selective Service Board announced that ten more young men from Louisa were inducted into the armed services. Earl Dandridge, a sophomore at A.G. Richardson High School, won the regional Future Farmers of America public speaking competition. The grand opening of a Phillips 66 gasoline and service center occurred on Main Street in Louisa.

For the first time, the Town of Louisa in conjunction with the local Jaycees strung Christmas lights and holiday greetings across Main Street at the East and West ends of the business district. The new Kodak Brownie Instamatic Camera was on sale for Christmas at Stephen T. Durner Jewelers on Main Street. The CV reported that Santa Claus would make an unscheduled visit along Main Street on Saturday, December 17 from 9:30 am to 3:45pm.

The inaugural meeting of the Louisa County Historical Society was held this month. Its first officers were elected, and annual dues were set at $3 for individuals and $5 for families.

The Historical Society invites you to participate in our next 50 years of bringing history alive. Annual dues begin at $35 – still a deal. If you're considering joining the Historical Society, and want to learn more about our planned activities, please go to <http://www.louisacounty-historical-society.org> or drop by the Sargeant Museum at 214 Fredericksburg Avenue in Louisa. The Museum hours are Monday through Friday from 10:00am to 4:00pm. If you're ready to join the Historical Society, it's easy to do at <http://www.louisacountyhistoricalsociety.org/join.htm>.

Holiday Styles 2016

by Heather Mechler-Fickes

Another holiday season is upon us, and that means gatherings with friends and family. Usually when we go to holiday parties we like to look nice and sometimes it's a chance to wear your hair a little different or do something else with your make-up.

If you usually wear your hair flat and sleek, experiment and break out the hot rollers and hairspray and go with fluffy big curls. Try a deep dramatic side part. Add a decorative hair accessory to be more festive for the holidays. If you don't want to have your hair real big, try doing rag curls. While your hair is damp, apply mousse throughout your hair and using pieces of pre torn-cloth strips (6-8 inches long) take sections of hair and wrap it around the cloth and tie. Let Dry.

Usually, make-up for everyday wear is subtle. There's lots of brown, and beige eye shadow. For the holi-

toned blue and violet eye shadow. Also, enhance your eye shape with eyeliner. Use mascara that will give you a cat eye lash or use false lashes. For you lips, go for a deep dark lip or a matte color.

Happy Holidays!

Creating Special Moments: Lake Anna Holidays Merge Into an Early Christmas

Many Lakers have decided over the last decade that Thanksgiving at the lake is better than carving the turkey in Northern Virginia and Maryland. I agree that we have to take a little time to make special moments in our lives. Having dinner in the tranquil environment that Lake Anna provides brings us back to the lake even in the winter months. The aquatic backdrop and wildlife bring a feeling of peace and relaxation to the human soul.

Just leaving the hectic environment of towns (especially the crowded northern part of our lives) creates a sigh of relief the moment once we get past all the traffic and start seeing the farms and rural setting.

A lot of Lakers (especially those who only spend vacations here) are decorating for Christmas early. Heck, my tree has been up since the 12th of November. Setting up Thanksgiving and Christmas together is creating a relaxed, soothing environment and only having to decorate once, leaving more time to turn off the TV and listen to Christmas music.

The holidays can be a stressful time for a lot of people, so take the stress off, come back to Lake Anna, and invite friends and create a yearly ritual for friends and family to cherish.

If it works, invite them for a Lake Anna Christmas.

See our events for Thanksgiving and Christmas ceremonies, parades and activities on page 8. Also visit LakeAnnaBreeze.com for our online events calendar.

The Lake Anna Waterfront Market Needs More Inventory

The Lake Anna waterfront market lacks high end inventory. Even though there are over 100 waterfront properties for sale on Lake Anna, there are few perfect lots for sale in the prime waterfront market. Agents are having a hard time finding the right property for each person because there are few that fit what most buyers are looking for. 20 years ago you could get a prime waterfront lot with a long view for 300 thousand dollars and now 300 thousand is a subprime budget. A waterfront lot with over 200 ft of shoreline on the south to middle part of lake anna with a long view and sandy beach would sell for 700 thousand to a million for the lot and there are none available. Even the most expensive lots on the lake right now do not have the perfect views.

New developments are coming but it seems alot of the newer ones have been on the private side and since the restaurants have been popping up and the promise of the resort on the way most buyers are looking for the public side of Lake Anna instead of the private side. Finding the right property in your budget is becoming increasingly more difficult.

The Lake Anna Visitor Center is offering a "Free Guide To Understanding The Lake Anna Real Estate Market". This guide will enable people to understand the differences in the lots on the lake and the minute details that determines the difference between a $700,000 lot and a $100,000 lot. The guide will cover so many aspects of the lake that people (even agents) aren't aware of and help give prospective Lake Anna buyers an edge when looking for the ultimate lake property.
